

ASSOCIATE ATTORNEY – Northern California (Oakland or Sacramento)

Maier Pfeffer Kim Geary & Cohen LLP is an established law firm that represents Native American Indian tribes and their commercial enterprises on a wide range of legal matters. Our main office is located in Oakland, California, however we have several satellite offices, including one in Sacramento.

We are looking for an associate attorney with experience representing tribes and tribal entities to join our expanding firm. The MPKGC legal team has nearly 200 years of collective experience representing California Indian tribes and tribal enterprises. We believe in collegiality, mutual respect and maintaining a level of staffing that allows the firm to promptly respond to our tribal clients who utilize us as general counsel for their governmental and commercial entities while at the same time allowing us to maintain a healthy work-life balance. This is an excellent opportunity for an attorney seeking professional growth and stable employment in a practice that will further develop their training, knowledge, and experience in representing tribes and tribal enterprises.

Minimum qualifications include:

- Juris Doctorate degree from an ABA accredited law school;
- Status as an active member in good standing with the CA bar or willing to sit for the next CA bar exam;
- Ability to relocate to the Bay Area or Sacramento;
- 3-5 years of practicing Tribal/Indian law;
- Skills in effectively communicating with tribal councils and government administration, opposing counsel, and federal/state/local agencies;
- Excellent analytical, research, and writing abilities;
- Experience drafting transactional documents;
- Litigation and court experience preferred; and
- Ability to work well independently and as a member of a team.

Duties and Responsibilities include all the duties that typically are required of experienced tribal counsel, including the ability to travel to remote locations, independently manage workload, and conduct oneself professionally with clients and in meetings with federal, state, and tribal entities.

We offer very competitive compensation, relocation expenses and full benefits.

Interested candidates should send their resumes to: hire@jmandmplaw.com.